Subject: E.U. RoHS Directive 2002/95/EC

TO: Banner Engineering Customers:

In January, 2003, the European Union passed a directive that restricts the use of certain substances (Pb, Hg, Cd, Cr(VI), PBB and PBDE) in new electronic equipment placed on the market after July 2006.

Banner products are fully compliant with the regulations described by the RoHS directive "2002/95/EC"; updated with current amendments dated to April 21st 2006 (2006/310/EC).

Sincerely,

Andy Barnauskas
Vice President of Operations
